

CROSSAIE AGAINST THE METROPOLITAN VICE

Bishop Potter Addresses Mayor Van Wyck on the Subject—Terrible Arraignment of the Municipal Authorities.

New York, Nov. 17.—Bishop Henry C. Potter, of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York, has sent a letter to Mayor Van Wyck in reference to vice in this city, and especially on the east side. This letter is the one promised some weeks ago, when the bishop publicly announced that one of his rec-tors had been grossly insulted by the commanding officer of a certain police station, and that he proposed to take the matter in a manner which would be the heads of the police force should feel.

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS. COMPLETED THE COUNT IN THE CITY

Stockmen Meet in City and County Building. County Districts Probably Will Take Until Tuesday Next.

DISCUSS SOME MEASURES. FURTHER CHANGES MADE.

Whereby Salt Lake City Will Entertain Delegates to National Livestock Convention.

Everything points to the fact that the convention to be held in Salt Lake City by the National Livestock association will be the most successful from every standpoint of any as yet held. As each year rolls on, it is found that there is increasing interest manifested in the objects and aims of the association, with an attendant larger assembly of delegates from all over the country to take part in the discussions on live topics that are brought before the notice of the convention.

Result as to Officers Remains as Previously Announced—Some Are Running Very Close.

The Salt Lake county canvassing board now on the returns from election districts outside of the city, the count within the municipality having been completed. It was possible that the canvass of the county returns will not be completed till Tuesday, though members of the board yet hope to get through on Monday.

FOUR PRISONERS ARE PARDONED.

Action of the State Board of Pardons at Today's Meeting.

ONE PRISONER IS PAROLED.

Names of Fortunate Ones are Jos. F. Wilson, Geo. Thompson, Ed. James, Thomas Inlay and John Howarth.

Five men, convicted of various crimes, received executive clemency at the hands of the State board of pardons today. Four of the prisoners were pardoned and one paroled. Three of them will emerge from behind prison walls, either this evening or tomorrow, and two of them will remain in confinement until next March, the date of their pardon not taking effect until then.

A PRISONER DYING.

The first prisoner pardoned was Joseph F. Wilson, convicted in this county of burglary on September 1st, 1898, and sentenced to 150 days in the Weber county jail. He was pardoned.

AMERICAN CLAIMS.

China Pays First Installment of Ten Thousand.

Canton, Nov. 17.—The American consul here has been notified that the board of reconstruction has been ordered to pay $10,000 as the first installment in settlement of American claims. All the consuls are pressing for indemnity for the destroyed missions. A special deputy has been appointed for each district to estimate the damage done.

SNOW IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 17.—Snow began falling during the night and still continues. It is from four to six inches deep. There is a bit of a snow storm in the middle of November is unprecedented. During the gale with which the storm was ushered in the steamer Comox, which had started on the coast, was forced to return for safety to the Gulf of Georgia and shipping men are apprehensively waiting for tidings of marine disasters.

Boers Severely Repulsed.

Bloemfontein, Nov. 17.—The Boers attacked the railroad at Eberburg, Nov. 15, but were repulsed. The Boers were completely out of one report has it that 75 of the party were killed or wounded.

Car's Condition Favorable.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—Another favorable bulletin on the subject of the czar's health was issued this afternoon as follows:

Safe Blown Open.

Quincy, Ill., Nov. 17.—The vault of the bank of Quincy, Ill., was blown open early today by robbers who, it is reported, secured $2,000.

Senator Davis' Condition Improves.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—Dr. A. K. Stone of St. Paul has public the following signed statement as to the condition of U. S. Senator Davis:

Reconstructed Cabinet Meeting.

London, Nov. 17.—The reconstructed British cabinet held its first meeting at the foreign office this morning under the presidency of Lord Salisbury.

Minister Harris Resigns.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The resignation of Addison C. Harris, minister of Austria-Hungary, has not yet been received at the state department, but it has been known for some months past that it would be forthcoming.

MacArthur's Casualty List.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The following casualty list was received from Manila today:

Man Causes Excitement.

George Matthews, a laborer 32 years of age, caused considerable excitement this afternoon on the corner of Third and State streets. He was staggering along the street and acting in a very strange manner.

Man Causes Excitement.

George Matthews, a laborer 32 years of age, caused considerable excitement this afternoon on the corner of Third and State streets. He was staggering along the street and acting in a very strange manner.

MONUMENT TO CRIME. COLORADO'S ORIME

A Mound, With Rail Standing Up, Marks the Scene of Porter's Incineration—Demand for Capital Punishment.

Limon, Colo., Nov. 17.—No inquest, it is said, will be held over the remains of Preston Porter, Jr., commonly known as John Porter, who was burned at a stake near Lake station last evening by a mob to avenge the murder of Louise Frost, which the young negro confessed he had committed. In fact, the coroner can find no remains upon which to hold an inquest. A few men remained late last night at the spot out on the prairie, where the murder was committed and avenged, and re-visited the site again and again until every vestige of the negro was gone.

Escaped Convicts Surrounded.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 17.—A special to the Star from Leavenworth, Kansas, says: Estell and Cravens, the convicts who escaped from the State penitentiary mine after a running fight with guards, are still at large.

French Doings in China.

Paris, Nov. 17.—At a council of the ministers today, M. Delcasse, French minister of foreign affairs, announced that the ministers at Peking had transmitted to their respective governments a number of articles of a joint note and contemplated adding six points to those already reached as a basis for peace negotiations.

Reconstructed Cabinet Meeting.

London, Nov. 17.—The reconstructed British cabinet held its first meeting at the foreign office this morning under the presidency of Lord Salisbury.

Minister Harris Resigns.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The resignation of Addison C. Harris, minister of Austria-Hungary, has not yet been received at the state department, but it has been known for some months past that it would be forthcoming.

MacArthur's Casualty List.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The following casualty list was received from Manila today:

THE FOOTBALL FIELD.

YALE-PRINCETON GAME.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 17.—The Princeton and Yale football eleven met on University field this afternoon. The annual contest, the understanding the fact that the sun was hidden behind clouds, making the day a rather bleak one, the weather was perfect for football. Each team was in prime condition and each hoped to win. Yale, however, by reason of her better performance during the season, entered the contest with the greater degree of confidence. Princeton was early filled with visitors. Besides the crowds that came in the regular trains, two specials from New York and two from Philadelphia brought several thousand enthusiasts. Everywhere the black and orange colors of Princeton and the blue of Yale could be seen.

CORNELL-LAFAYETTE.

Easton, Pa., Nov. 17.—First half: Cornell, 0; Lafayette, 17.

PENNSYLVANIA-CARLISLE.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 17.—Anxious to retrieve their crushing defeat of last year when the Carlisle Indians won by the score of 19 to 5, the red and white of Pennsylvania this afternoon met their former victors on Franklin field gridiron. The day opened raw and with lowering clouds, through which the sun shone at intervals. The teams lined up as follows:

THE CITY'S HEALTH.

There were twenty cases of "small-pox" reported to the local health office during the week, making a total of thirty-nine cases now in the city, thirteen of which are in the pest house.

DINNER TO NEWSBOYS.

The Thanksgiving dinner to the newsboys of Salt Lake City, given by the daily papers here, will not be omitted this year, and in consequence the boys are happy. The event will come off on Thursday, Nov. 23, at Bond's restaurant on East Temple street.

POSTOFFICE FOR KIMBALL.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—John A. Reising, of Corydon, Indiana, has been appointed a teacher in the Ouray Indian school at Utah.

Postoffice has been established at Kimball, Platte county, with Mr. A. Waide as postmaster.

Table with 2 columns: Counties, and 2 sub-columns: Returns, and Votes. Lists various counties and their respective returns and votes.

THE REMAINING TWO COUNTIES HAVE ESTIMATED MAJORITIES FOR JUDGE KING AS FOLLOWS:

Table with 2 columns: County, and Returns. Lists Salt Lake and San Juan counties with their returns.

THE REMAINING TWO COUNTIES HAVE ESTIMATED MAJORITIES FOR JUDGE KING AS FOLLOWS:

Table with 2 columns: County, and Returns. Lists Salt Lake and San Juan counties with their returns.

ARRIVED SAFELY.

A telegram received at President Snow's office today, from the International Navigation company, says that the steamer Penland arrived safely at Queenstown yesterday, and proceeded to Liverpool. All on board were well.

STREET CARS COLLIDE.

Accident on East Temple Street This Morning.

There was a sudden crash in the vicinity of Third South and East Temple streets at 8:15 this morning, and when the passengers on cars No. 8 and 42 had sorted themselves out, it developed that the former car, which plys between the O. S. L. depot and East Waterloo, was minus the rear platform.

MAN CAUSES EXCITEMENT.

Has a Fit and Struggles Like a Mad Man.

George Matthews, a laborer 32 years of age, caused considerable excitement this afternoon on the corner of Third and State streets. He was staggering along the street and acting in a very strange manner.

STREET CARS COLLIDE.

Accident on East Temple Street This Morning.

There was a sudden crash in the vicinity of Third South and East Temple streets at 8:15 this morning, and when the passengers on cars No. 8 and 42 had sorted themselves out, it developed that the former car, which plys between the O. S. L. depot and East Waterloo, was minus the rear platform.